

LINDA ENGLER TALLA SKOGMO

ENGLER SKOGMO INTERIOR DESIGN

he art of living has a lot of fingerprints on it and no one knows this and suggest a new idea or lend an objective opinion. Though the firm's designers may Interior Design.

Primarily a residential interior design firm, Engler Skogmo enjoys a nice combination of Avoiding the cookie-cutter designer stereotype, their interiors never have an "Engler high-end residential homes.

Linda and Talla were both educated at the University of Minnesota and became acquainted while working at competing firms. Forming a mutual admiration both personally and professionally, they decided to mesh their talents, energy and experience in 2004 with the founding of Engler Skogmo Interior Design.

The designers at Engler Skogmo maintain separate clientele, but are always available to bounce ideas back and forth and act as a sounding board, view a project with "fresh eyes," better than Linda Engler and Talla Skogmo, cofounders of Engler Skogmo bave different aesthetic approaches to designing an interior, the common threads that run through each project are classic, timeless, clean and well edited design.

special commercial projects as well. The firm's bread and butter is magnificent custom. Skogmo" signature look to them. They rely on their clients' personalities and lifestyles to dictate the look of each project, focusing on each client's comfort and enjoyment. The designers at Engler Skogmo celebrate, balance and complement each other's strengths which results in dynamic and thoughtful results for the firm's clients.